As a church school, we place Christian values at the heart of everything we do to inspire our children to strive for excellence in all they do, to know that they are valued, respected and can make a real difference.

- Our Christian ethos and values allow the children to learn in a happy, safe and vibrant school community.
- We offer a well-balanced, engaging and relevant curriculum, allowing our children to learn about their local environment and the ever-changing world they live in.
- We are fortunate to have extensive outdoor space and offer a wide range of curriculum enrichment through trips, visitors and extra-curricular activities.
- We offer before and after school clubs for our pupils and a wide range of clubs and activities for everyone to enjoy!
