School Inclusion Lead Advert

Do you have the drive, passion and commitment to deliver inspirational inclusion leadership to our children, staff and families in a caring community where every child is supported to "be the best they can be?" If so, becoming the inclusion leader at St Mary's CE Primary School might just be the best career move you every make.

We are an aspirational, caring school with Christian values at the centre of all that we do who are looking to appoint an Inclusion Leader to join our rapidly improving school from September 2021. The successful candidate needs to be highly motivated leader with high expectations of what all children can achieve, regardless of barriers; someone who believes, as we do, that all children are entitled to access the full richness of a broad and balanced academic and non-academic curriculum, and will thrive upon providing equal opportunity for all.

The inclusion Leader's role will include responsibilities for leading of SEND provision, PP, Looked After pupils and DDSL across the whole school. This is an exciting opportunity to become a member of our ambitious, dedicated and supportive senior leadership team driving forward the strategic vision for our school.

We will consider candidates who have not worked previously as a SENDCo if they have proven leadership skills and experience of working successfully to support pupils with special education needs, who are ambitious and highly motivated to make a difference. Appropriate training and support will be provided to support you to gain the NaSENCo qualification.

As a member of Peterborough Diocese Education Trust (PDET), we have the knowledge and support of a Central Team that shares our values and Christian ethos. A drive within the Trust to offer wide ranging professional development to all its staff, as well as network opportunities for sharing practice and expertise, brings a wealth of opportunities for support and progression. PDET prides itself on bringing the advantages of working collectively and collaboratively with a wider network, whilst maintaining each school's individuality and own community.

The school is offering:

- Fantastic children who are eager to learn and well behaved
- A super supportive and highly visible SLT team and Headteacher
- Hardworking and dedicated staff team
- On-going high quality CPD through the school and PDET Trust

The school is looking for:

- A love and passion of inclusive education for all with a commitment to high expectations of academic standards and behaviour
- Ability to inspire and motivate staff with the ability to lead by example
- Relevant SEN coordination qualification is desirable or a commitment to training to achieve NaSENCo qualification
- Experience of delivering SEN/D and inclusive practice across whole school supporting EYFS, KS1 and KS2 learners.
- A willingness to support the Christian ethos of a Church of England School by being the best role model for pupils and working as part of our whole school team.

This post is not suitable for an NQT.

As a school we are committed to the safeguarding of children and this job is subject to an Enhanced DBS check.
